

TEST OF MIND READING TO BE TRIED TOMORROW

De Rubini has drawn attention by reason of his wide travel experiences and his interesting war record. As a Czech, he was a soldier on one of the three Austrian regiments in the early days of the war which refused to fight the Russians and were taken prisoners to Russia.

WORKED AS PSYCHOLOGIST AMONG WAR PRISONERS.
As a prisoner, he did psychological work among prisoners with success in bettering their mental conditions. He was in Russia more than two years until Russian difficulties became so extreme as to render the plight of prisoners unbearable and all who could escaped. De Rubini was one of these, and he succeeded in reaching Holland where he again set to work and laid the whole foundation of his present success.

Since coming to Oakland he has called upon many scientists and citizens to discuss his theories. Hope of impressing these and attracting others to join in investigations similar to his own are largely responsible for his consent to open tests in public.

Since coming to Oakland he has fearfully reiterated, on all occasions, that he is not working upon anything but a practical and useful mental development, which in his case is more acute, partially, perhaps through hereditary, but chiefly through intensive development.

De Rubini says he has been able to concentrate to such an extent that he can fix his mind upon a single object for hours at a time. The average concentration, according to psychologists, is a matter of minutes and even seconds.

Members of the special committee hope, by seeing the young man work, to form some measure of his telepathic powers, and it is to this end that THE TRIBUNE has undertaken the general arrangements of the meeting and tests.

TOKYO, Oct. 15.—Premier Hara, in a speech to the munitions commission, emphasized the importance of forming at once an industrial mobilization scheme. He announced that the government is despatching military, railway and shipping lines with a view to co-ordination and control "in the event of an emergency." The premier revealed that the war office is spending 2,500,000 yen on new fortifications in Tokyo bay.

SPECIAL AGENTS CHOSEN TO HUNT ILLICIT WHISKY

o'clock in the evening on until 9 o'clock the next morning.

Harry Brolaski, often called the "master mind" in the liquor scandal, former gambler, executed a flank movement and drew attention from the attacks made upon him today when he came out with a statement that all the time he has been acting as confidential agent for Lorin A. Handley, later prohibition enforcement officer.

Brolaski says that he has been doing some private sleuthing in Oakland, San Francisco and other places, that he made reports to Handley, and that he has a large amount of information that he will give to the grand jury at the proper time.

"After Handley's death," says Brolaski, "I continued the operations by myself because I knew a political plot had been hatched against Mrs. Warburton, and I did not propose to see her good name besmirched by politicians. She is an honest and upright woman and loyal to the government."

"As a result of my investigations I find that Wardell was lax in his official duties and that Bernard H. Mooney, one of his assistants, upon the mere whispered word of a federal government office holder, turned loose 41 barrels of whisky and 10 barrels of gin for the Democratic convention tourists."

Brolaski says no effort was made to trace this whisky and gin and that he has a tremendous bulk of evidence which will force many officials into an "apologetic mood," before he is through.

SEEMS TO SCREEN ISSUE
DECLARES WARDLE
Wardell, in reply, says that Brolaski is dictating every statement Mrs. Warburton and that he is seeking to screen the issue by claims and statements.

By his own confession he has been in the clutches of the law seventy-nine times. Wardell says of Brolaski, "and he is now getting into trouble for the eightieth time."

Brolaski had denied that he wired Mrs. Warburton to return to San Francisco, but admitted that he conferred with her at breakfast every morning and that he intends to continue doing so.

raise in taxation and considerable of a raise simply because three special elections must be held at the minimum expense of $22,000.

"Now I do not think the blame should be placed wholly on the man who was responsible for getting those petitions signed; there were others behind him and behind this petition. The first man to suggest it was there who solicited for the petition, and the result was he got money from here, there, and everywhere until he finally secured the sum of about $4000, and with this sum he employed principally girls to take these petitions on the streets of the big cities of the county, but mostly in Oakland."

ANOTHER THEORY OF PROPOSERS EXPLODED.
"I know as a matter of fact that a great many signed that petition under misapprehension as to its purpose or the consequences that might follow from it. These girls would stop a man or woman going by and say, 'Don't you want to sign a petition for better government?' and of course the unthinking man or woman would sign his name. I am not saying everyone misapprehended it, but many did. Some of these people who got signatures would say, 'I have a starving wife. If you put your name on there I will get ten cents. You don't have to vote for it.'"

Locke explained that any city in the county may now have its assessment work done by the county staff and declared that, because this was true another of the strongest arguments of the consolidationists was exploded. He said that in the same manner powers for the cities to have their purchasing done by one officer could be brought out by legislation. He also declared that under the plan as outlined by the proponents of the consolidation a county manager or administrator would have the power of enforcing ordinances which would require the surrender of inviduity on the part of the small communities like Livermore, a surrender which they would never willingly give up.

"No question is settled until it is settled right," he said. "So long as we are compelled by reason of the things of this petition we are responsible, more or less, for it. To some extent we are responsible for its being filed, because we voted—a number of us anyway—for the constitutional amendment that enabled it to be done."

VICTIOUS MEASURE, LOCKE DECLARES.
"It was a vicious measure and should never have been put through. It was put over by a small vote, people not knowing the contents of that constitutional amendment voted in favor and it became a law. In accordance with that law these men had this petition circulated and this situation was, this election was going to be called whether we liked it or not. The best thing now is to see what can be done and to have the best men possible serve as freeholders."

Locke explained that this last ballot was largely responsible for his taking the position on the committee of the proponents of the plan and that also the need of a solution of the water problem convinced him that he should represent his city and he present at any meeting which might result in accomplishment of results toward a new supply.

planned hourly by the federal officials who are seeking to shroud many of their movements in secrecy. With the acquisition of a number of agents the force is daily becoming more effective.

In all of the federal offices today the "underground story" persisted that word of importance, upon which might be based action of unusually drastic nature, was expected at any moment from Washington.

Soviet Has Shortage of Wheat for Winter

BERLIN, Oct. 15.—The Russian Soviet republic has about 130,000,000 bushels of wheat at its disposal this year, according to a statement made to the Red Flag, a local communist organ, by Dr. Schlowsky, who has arrived here from Moscow. Schlowsky is said to be in the Soviet's diplomatic service and was formerly a legation counselor in Bern. He says that 225,000,000 bushels of wheat are nominally needed to feed Russia, but the government is confident it will pull through the coming winter. The food and transport situation, he said, is also showing improvement.

JOHNSON PLEADS FOR SUCCESS OF HARDING TICKET

CLEVELAND, Oct. 15.—Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California made a plea last night before a large audience for the election of Harding and Coolidge. He also attacked the League of Nations and the treaty, which embodies it. Johnson said:

Eighteen months ago, when President Wilson called the League of Nations the greatest magna charta humanity was ever given, and when all of us, with the bloody war on our hands, were having a mental reflex, a psychological reaction that was necessary, we welcomed it with relief.

At that time it was treason to denounce it, or to preach Americanism and nationalism, but thank God, after a year and a half it is respectable to preach Americanism again.

Gradually the mystical veil which enveloped the document was torn aside. We had expected war prevention, but, oh, the disillusionment! The fourteen points of our President were one by one forgotten or abandoned to European and Asiatic diplomacy.

TREATY IS CONDEMNED
We were handed the treaty which divided up the earth according to secret treaties.

The league and the treaty are the same instrument and inextricably co-mingled. Where the treaty disposed the league perpetuates for all time. Every wrongful, wicked, territorial disposition under the treaty of peace, the league and its members are pledged to maintain.

The great question before us is: Under which flag do we henceforth march—the polyglot banner of Europe and Asia, or the stars and stripes?

Under Political Spotlight's Eye

MODESTO, Oct. 15.—Governor W. D. Stephens and Samuel M. Shortridge, candidate for the United States Senate, divided time in the auditorium last night with a card of boxing bouts.

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Oct. 15.—The Wilson administration and the League of Nations were both scored by Albert J. Beveridge, former United States Senator from Indiana, in a speech delivered in the interests of the Republican party. It was his second and last speech in California in the present campaign.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 15.—The League of Nations is the greatest boon in history, Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall told an audience at the city auditorium here last night.

BOSTON, Oct. 15.—Senator Underwood of Alabama divided an address last night to a defense of the League of Nations and a review of taxation.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 15.—Declaring that his position on the League of Nations is the same as that of Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee for President, Senator Irvine L. Lenroot, accepted the league as the permanent campaign issue in his keynote speech here last night.

WATERLOO, Iowa, Oct. 15.—Parley P. Christensen, farmer-labor candidate for President here today, praised the immigrant and his contribution to the political progressivism of the west.

"There are people," he said, "who want the immigrant rushed to some plant where every vestige of his past traditions shall be removed. They would have him geographically washed and sterilized as soon as he steps on Ellis island. I believe that we can so fashion the instructions of this country that the immigrant will of his own accord, freely and cheerfully, avail himself of the opportunity to count himself an American."

Political Notes

All women of Alameda county are invited to attend the Republican rally at 415 Thirteenth street at 2:30 o'clock, Saturday afternoon. When Mrs. Raymond Robins of Chicago will speak. This evening the women of the State Central committee for Alameda county will meet in conference at the headquarters on Thirteenth street to discuss the formation of a woman's bureau to the county committee.

SAILOR MASKS AS GIRD.
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 15.—Arturo Lopez, Mare island sailor, was lodged in the city jail here last night following his arrest at a dance hall, where he was masquerading as a girl. "As long as 'she' was dancing 'her' disguise was perfect, but I knew him for a sailor as soon as he started to walk," said Detective Box.

Discussion of measures to be voted on in November will feature the meeting of the Vernon-Rockridge Improvement Club Monday evening at the Rockridge Masonic hall, Colma and Keith avenues.

Speakers at the meeting will be Prof. Thomas H. Reed of the University of California, Mrs. E. G. ### Groveland Visitor Killed by S. F. Car

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—A man presumed to be Elias Martinez, 45 years old, of Groveland, Tuolumne county, California, became confused by traffic and walked in front of a street car on the McAllister line at Beale and Market streets today. Martinez was hit and knocked many feet. He was taken to the Harbor Emergency Hospital where he died. In his pockets were found two railroad tickets to Groveland bearing his name. It is believed that another member of his family is somewhere in the city.

HARDING FILLING INDIANA WHILE COX IS IN OHIO

ON BOARD SENATOR HARDING'S SPECIAL TRAIN, Oct. 15.—In a whirlwind trip through Southern Indiana today, Senator Harding continued his warfare against the Versailles League of Nations and asked for "A return to the Constitution, through the election of a Republican administration and a Republican Congress."

The announcement was made that Senator Harding would deliver addresses in both Buffalo and Rochester, N. Y., October 21. No other eastern speaking dates will be made.

EN ROUTE WITH GOVERNOR CON, Columbus, O., Oct. 15.—Governor Cox today plans to carry his fight for the League of Nations to Senator Harding's front porch. His schedule, which called for numerous short speeches in central and northern Ohio and a main address at Detroit tonight, will carry him to Marion early this morning. The Governor's advisors differed as to whether he would speak in Senator Harding's home town, but a majority of them were of the opinion that he would make a brief rear-platform speech. Those favoring the idea were urging that there are many Democrats in Marion, particularly among the railwaymen, and were arguing that they were entitled to an opportunity to hear their candidate.

The Governor realizes that he has a hard fight ahead of him in Ohio and he means to spare no effort to swing the State.

Congress to Be Asked for Limit On Immigration

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. TACOMA, Oct. 15.—Congressman Albert Johnson, chairman of the House committee on immigration, announced today that he will advocate limiting immigration to relatives of naturalized citizens when the immigration committee meets in Washington November 11. Johnson predicted that a bill will be framed by the committee in time for presentation soon after Congress assembles in December.

"I believe that immigration should be limited until world conditions change, to relatives of citizens of the United States," he said. "Such a law will permit plenty of immigration and there will then be a guarantee back of each immigrant. STUDENTS AND VISITORS ONLY FROM JAPAN."

He also expressed the belief that immigration from Japan can be limited to a suspension of immigration giving offense to the Japanese government.

"I believe that the Japanese will agree to a suspension of immigration with the understanding that those Japanese now in the United States shall receive the good treatment which the people from all countries have always received in this land."

The probe of the Japanese situation, by the immigration committee, Johnson said, showed that the opposition to Japanese immigration is not a matter of hysteria.

"The people of the west coast," he said, "merely do not want to lower their living conditions. On the same grounds, Japan refuses admittance to Chinese and Koreans."

CHEAP LABOR IS DEAR LABOR AT ANY PRICE.

A year ago, a law restricting immigration was not passed, he said, because it was felt that the nation was short of "cheap labor."

"Cheap labor," he added, "is dear at any price. Ten thousand immigrants are now landing on our shores every day. Coming out of the upheaval of Europe, many of them are unable to understand or accept American institutions. Such as these bring a ready-made revolt with them."

"The American people have awakened to alarm at the unparalleled influx from Europe," he declared. "American consular reports that literally several million people are clamoring to enter the U. S."

Bureau for League Education Urged

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. MILAN, Italy, Oct. 15.—Proposals for the establishment of an international bureau for education were adopted at a plenary session of the conference of League of Nations Societies here today. According to the plan, all institutions from primary schools to universities would give instruction in the foundation of the League of Nations and the duty of citizens toward it. Recommendation has been made by the conference that each year a day be set apart over the entire world on which the anniversary of the foundation of the League of Nations may be celebrated.

Germany's Reds Told to Foment World Uprising

HALLE, Germany, Oct. 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—For fully four hours tonight M. Zelenov, chairman of the executive committee of the Third International and one of the four big chiefs of Soviet Russia, pleaded with the independent Socialists at their convention here to join with Moscow, create a revolution in Germany and help carry out the proletarian program for a world revolution.

At the conclusion of his address the radicals of the party and the audience in the packed galleries stood with bared heads singing the Internationale while the conservatives walked slowly out of the hall.

A great ovation then was accorded Zelenov with many "hoos" and cries of "long live the Internationale," and the waving of hats. It is expected the vote as to whether the independents will adhere to the Moscow organization will be taken tomorrow (Friday). At one time Zelenov charged the German labor unions with being no "better than Noske's White Guards" and "that they were tools in the hands of the capitalists."

The audience hissed its disapproval of this declaration and a number of the right wing leaders, shaking their fists, rushed to the rostrum, threatening the speaker and demanding retraction.

NEW FERRY LINE WILL RUSH WORK, SAYS PROMOTER

Construction operations will be commenced immediately upon the new ferry wharf and slip at the foot of Seventh street adjoining the Alameda plant for the installation of a new transbay automobile ferry service, according to W. H. Morrissey, attorney for the Six Minute Ferry company, now operating between Crocker and Vallejo which firm was yesterday awarded a leasehold on the waterway property. The lease is subject to a final confirmation of the city council on Monday. Operations will be rushed so that ferry service will be possible within six months, when the company's ferry boat San Jose, now operating on the Crocker-Vallejo run, will be brought to the lower bay. Construction of two steel ferry boats will begin at once, according to Morrissey, and the service will be in full swing within a year.

The company has already been granted ferry privileges at the ferry building in San Francisco, the other terminus of the proposed line. The ferry officials plan a thirty-minute service daily and a twenty-minute service on holidays.

The new ferry will be in direct competition with the Southern Pacific company's creek route line. The Six Minute Ferry company will expend $1,000,000 on preparing the new wharf and trestle, which will be about 150 feet long, and a ferry slip, says Morrissey.

ARGENTINA BALKS AT GOLD EXPORTS

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 13.—Disapproval of the exportation of gold from Argentina to the United States for the purpose of regulating the exchange situation is expressed by the board of trade following a report from a special committee appointed to consider the proposed law authorizing such exportation. The committee decided that in view of the world financial situation, Argentina should guard her gold.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—A group of businessmen conferred today with officials of the State and Treasury Departments regarding the possibility of American financial aid to Cuba which has been requested by President Menocal. In the party were W. A. Averch, president of the Banco Nacional; Manuel Rondon, president of the Cuban Cane Sugar Co.; W. A. Lamborn of Havana, and Robert Atkins Jr. of Boston.

MADRID, Oct. 13.—A "shameful situation" was the characterization of the embargo on the export of the American dollar in valued at 63 pesetas, made by Guillermo Brunet, Spanish economist, in the Revista Economica today. A peseta normally is equivalent to 20 cents. He advocated increase of the discount rate by the Bank of Spain. "Whether the minister of finance likes the step or not."

LEADS TO TRIBUTE.
AMSTERDAM, Oct. 13.—Efforts to stabilize Dutch financial affairs are being made following another drop in stock quotations today, but some financial experts are of the opinion that there are no signs that the low mark in prices has been reached. The stocks most seriously affected were Havanna Sugar and Royal Dutch Petroleum, which sank, respectively to 660 and 729. American exchange was somewhat easier.

GIRLS KEEP FIRE VIGIL 4 MONTHS O' NMT. BALLY

Back from a four months' vigil on the top of Mount Bally, near Weaverville, Miss Genevieve Burke and Miss Catherine Flinn, members of the force of forest fire lookouts, are in Berkeley, the possessors of a proud record in unusual service.

On August 4, the day of an electrical storm in the mountains, the girls reported twenty-eight fires, and with the three other women, Miss Abbie Brownlee of Red Bluff and Miss Elsie Lucky of Saddle Creek, reported three-quarters of all fires reported. All told there were 137 fires in the Trinity forest during the season.

Miss Burke and Miss Flinn lived together in a cabin on top of the mountain, a house with wide windows on all sides and 7500 feet above the sea level. Until early last week neither had seen a snow storm. With the start of the rain and snow it is held there is no further need of the lookouts.

Skulker Gases His Victims in Homes

CASHMERE, Wash., Oct. 13.—H. N. Towne and his wife are recovering slowly here today from the effects of chlorine gas, projected into their home by an unidentified prowler. A night watchman answering Towne's calls for help saw the man skulking near the house and fired but the prowler escaped.

New Bon-Ton and
Royal Worcester
Corsets

For Fall and Winter

The secret of style is directly traceable to the correctly fitted corset.

In the Bon-Ton Corset one is assured of both grace of line and comfort for they are scientifically designed to give support with restriction.

Two patented features of the Bon-Ton and Royal Worcester Corsets not found in other models are the O-I-C clasp and the Wundabohn process. The clasp does not twist nor squeak and always stays flat. The Wundabohn process is one which gives a flexible boning which does not break. This means that the corset, once fitted, keeps its shape and style and assures the maximum of comfort.

BON-TON CORSETS ROYAL WORCESTER
come in both the front and back lace model, developed in cou-tilla, cotton brocades and silk brocades. They are priced from $5.00 to $15.00. —Second Floor

Handsome New Dress Blouses

Many new ones of crepe georgette which fabric lends itself so admirably not only to Winter fashions, but to adornment as well, and forms just the background for beading, embroidery or fine lace.

Many of the new models are in the overblouse style, though there are any number of them to wear inside the skirt, too.
Some have sashes which tie in the back, some have narrow girdles. Jet and dark beads are much used.

But not all are of crepe georgette, for some are of satin, tulle, and some of crepe de chine.

They come in black, blue and the fashionable hues of the Winter. Sleeves are long or short—three-quarter length—are much liked.

Of the finer blouses we have only one of a kind so there is a bit of wisdom in selecting your blouses early. Prices—
$5.95 to $47.50.

CHARITY BALL TONIGHT WILL DRAW HUNDREDS

The city of Oakland, tonight, will put on its collective hat and dancing pumps and sally forth to the benefit function, that is to assure the ladies of the West Oakland Home plenty of warm clothing and other necessities of life for the ensuing winter.

That all plans for the dance had been completed was the announcement made today by Mrs. Olive H. Fanning, member of the board of managers, who are staging the benefit.

"We want every soul in Oakland who can possibly attend our dance to do so," she said, "and for this purpose we have arranged to have the latest sort of jazz dance music until well after one o'clock."

"This will enable the theatergoers and those returning from the city to at least drop in for a few moments, and assist in making this worthy cause a success."

Actual need in the institution for clothes of all description make it imperative that the city co-operate in the relief work, Mrs. Fanning said. Shoes are an important item of which there is a great shortage, and these should be purchased before the cold season sets in, it is pointed out.

Dancing will start at the Arcade sharp at eight o'clock, and continue as long as the guests care to dance," it was announced. Special musical features by Eddie Horton, the "jazz wizard," will mark some of the festivities of the evening.

Political Club to Give Whist Dance

The Swedish-American Political Club will give its twenty-eighth annual whist party and dance at Jenny Lind Hall, 222 Telegraph avenue, tomorrow evening. The club committee in charge of the affair consists of: B. F. Lotter, E. Carlson, E. C. Johnson, J. Peterson, O. A. Esberg, A. W. Gustafson, C. J. Peterson, K. E. Hanson, J. W. Nelson and E. Bergstrom.

BOASTS OF LIQUOR CACHE, FINDS IT DRY AS SAHARA

Harry East Miller, wealthy club man and explosives expert, residing at 305 Palm avenue, until today boasted to his friends that he had the best collection of bonded whiskey in Oakland. It was old, according to some of Miller's friends who tasted it.

But Miller isn't boasting today. He doesn't say anything. He came home from a two weeks' outing and the first thing he did was to visit his cellar. He later reported to the police that not a bottle was to be found anywhere. Nothing else in the house had been touched.

NOTED BRAZILIAN PHYSICIAN DIES

Dr. Nunes Cletra, prominent physician and surgeon of Brazil and instructor in the medical college of the national university of Brazil, died today at St. Anthony's Hospital after a brief illness from pneumonia following influenza.

In spite of efforts of three physicians, Dr. A. W. Fosbury, Dr. M. Enos and Dr. Joseph Enos, he grew weaker until death. Dr. Cletra came to Oakland a week ago with his wife and six-year-old son, and had been living at the Hotel Morrison. He had planned to stay for an extended period and to place his son in school here.

In Brazil besides being a medical instructor in the national university, he was at the head of his own hospital. Funeral plans have not yet been made but it is probable the body will be taken to Brazil for interment.

MORGAN STARTS REPAYMENT OF LOAN TO ALLIES

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. — Payment of $500,000,000, Anglo-French loan, maturing today, was begun at J. P. Morgan & Co., syndicate managers of a country-wide group of banks which underwrote the loan in 1915. It is understood that payments will involve more than $200,000,000, the greater part of which will represent the French portion of the obligation, England having anticipated the major part of her share.

Today's payment is the largest ever made in connection with an international transaction.

Mac Swiney Still Fasting Life Away, Say Relatives

By WEBB MILLER, (United Press Staff Correspondent) (Copyright 1920 by The United Press)

LONDON, Oct. 13. — Death only can or will prove definitely whether Terence MacSwiney is fasting his life away or whether he is taking nourishment in the hope that some turn of fate will release him from prison without making him a laughing stock.

A personal investigation at Brixton prison, where the Lord Mayor of Cork today began his sixty-fourth day of fasting yielded this information:

Friends and relatives vehemently declare that the only sustenance given MacSwiney has been a thin

No Need to Sweeten Grape-Nuts

This wheat and malted barley food is naturally sweet, since twenty hours' baking and processing develop sugar from its own grains.

Grape-Nuts is easily digested and has a rich flavor unlike that of any other cereal.

It is healthful and economical

"There's a Reason"

Made by Postum Cereal Company, Inc. Battle Creek, Michigan.

"We wouldn't be able to feed Terry even if we wanted to do it," she declared. "Prison officials watch us too closely. One of us is at the bedside day and night and always there is a nurse there. Most of the time a doctor is with us, too."

"They keep food at the bedside. Milk and broth are in sight at all times in the hope that he will yield. 'Besides, what would be the use of eating now? It would only keep him alive a few more days. We have given up all hope of his release. He is determined to continue the fast until death."

SCIENTIFIC TREATMENT

"His eventual death will prove to the world that his will has not weakened."

Prison physicians are doing everything to keep MacSwiney alive, his wife said. His room is kept at high temperature, hot water bottles are packed about his emaciated body, and he is bathed three times daily while careful examinations are made and reports on his condition filed with the home office.

The physicians have warned MacSwiney's relatives not to excite the man.

Sinn Fein sympathizers, confident that MacSwiney is a martyr, meet the cynical comments of non-Sinn Fein sympathizers with the assertion that there is no data to show how long a man can live without food if he is given scientific care.

TYPIST DRILL TO TUNES

A new method of teaching beginners how to type is being introduced in Oakland's evening schools. The class does typing drill to the tunes of a phonograph. Jazz music and marches are the favorites of the pupils and they rapidly advance under the new method.

Three Injured in Traffic Accidents

Ernest Denson, 16 years old, 405 Grove street; Mrs. E. A. Pridham, 1818 Twenty-eighth avenue, and Alvin Angelo, 532 Fourth street, were injured in traffic accidents late last night and today.

Young Denson was hit by an automobile at Seventh and Jefferson streets and suffered cuts and bruises of the legs. He was brought in by Paul McNamee, of 2514 E. Twenty-second street.

Mrs. Pridham was badly shocked in an automobile accident at Sixteenth and Broadway at 2 o'clock this morning and was taken to the emergency hospital by the police where she is recovering.

Anglo suffered superficial injuries when an automobile hit his

BOOZE SEIZED IN TUNNEL

AMERICAN ENTRY IN LEAGUE CAN NOT BE DECIDED

BOSTON, Oct. 15.—The Trustees of World Peace Foundation, the million-dollar endowment established in 1910 by the late Edwin Ginn, have unanimously adopted a declaration that American entry into the League of Nations can not be decided by the November election. The statement says:

"The problem of the organization of the world for peace is greater than any man or any body of men. Although the ratification of the treaty of Versailles, with or without reservations, was prevented by the failure of the President and the Senate to agree, nevertheless, whatever political party may come into power, it will find that the interest, the conscience and the sense of duty of the American people will require the nation to take its part in the essential work of establishing and preserving the peace of the world."

The World Peace Foundation was created to promote the organization of the world for the prevention of war. The trustees of this Foundation believe that the only practical way of achieving that result is by joining the existing League of Nations, with such modifications, if any, as the wisdom of our statesmen may think proper for the welfare of the United States. We have assurance that foreign governments will welcome the United States with any such modifications as it may think necessary.

The Board of Trustees includes both Democrats and Republicans. Their declaration is signed by William H. P. Fauntleroy, president of Brown University, George W. Anderson, Sarah Louise Arnold, Professor George H. Blakeslee of Clark University, Stephen Pierce Duggan, President A. Lawrence Lowell of Harvard, former Governor Samuel W. McCall of Massachusetts, Bliss Perry, Albert E. Pillsbury, George A. Plimpton and Joseph Swain, and Edward Cummings, general secretary.

BOOZE ARRESTS MADE
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 15.—Ben Johnson, a former prohibition enforcement officer here, and Charles S. Gannaway, were arrested here yesterday by federal officers when they sought to bribe prohibition enforcement agents "to let certain individuals alone" according to the district attorney.

VICTIM OF MOB TO COMPLAIN TO GOV. STEPHENS

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Oct. 15.—S. H. Wood, of Everett, Wash., will leave here today for Sacramento, Cal., to file charges with Governor Stephens and the attorney-general that he was the victim of a mob at Susanville, Cal., last Monday.

Wood, near collapse, arrived here with his clothing tattered, due to making his way through barbed wire fences and brush in the darkness. He made an affidavit before an attorney that he was placed in jail at Susanville on the charge of being an I. W. W. He said he explained he was an accredited organizer of the International Union of Timber Workers but claimed the city marshal refused to examine his credentials.

Later, he declared, the marshal took him from the jail, and said he would be given a hearing, but instead, he said, a mob captured him and put a rope around his neck and threatened to hang him. After being taken 20 miles by auto, the mob decided to turn him loose and Wood finally wandered to Klamath Falls.

British Pry Into U. S. Diplomatic Mail

LONDON, Oct. 15. (By The Associated Press)—The censoring of American diplomatic mail by the British military authorities in Ireland has led to informal inquiries at the foreign office by J. Butler Wright, charge of the American embassy, a quick expression of regret on the part of the British government and a personal apology from the office responsible.

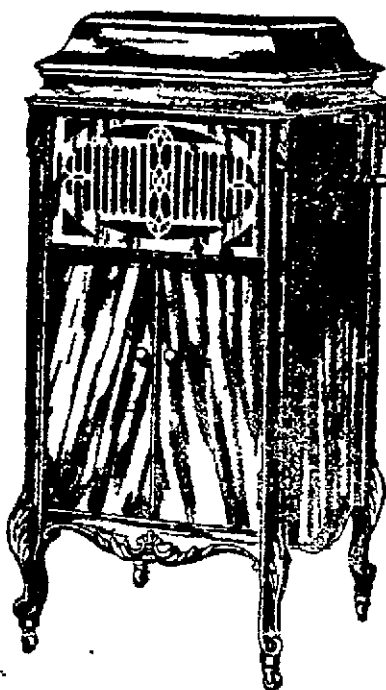

The letter in question was an offensive missive sent by the embassy to the American consul at Dublin, Frederick T. F. Dumont. It was seized by the British military in a raid on the mail, and the British explanation, that the letter was opened by officers not accustomed to censorship, without intent to pry into the diplomatic correspondence of the United States, has been accepted by the embassy.

Civil Service Board Calling for Police

The civil service board is still calling for candidates for policemen. The high cost of equipment, it is said, deters some candidates from becoming policemen. Khaki uniforms, which once cost $27.50, now come to $72. Hats are now $5.50 instead of $2.15. A police revolver, once $14, is now $38.50. Overcoats, rubber coats and other materials come high also.

Great changes have been wrought in THIRTY-ONE YEARS

Fashions are more practical, more dainty and more comfortable. But many a charming debutante, whose coming-out gowns bear the CAPWELL label, is hearing today from mother how she came to this store in the eighties for filmy laces for her party dresses.

Anniversaries came and went and always the vision of the new and greater Capwells was held. Phantom-like, shadowy, this vision persisted in the hopes, ambition and determination of the founders.

Oakland grew and new sky lines began to form in the business center. A GREATER CAPWELLS became a reality. Since then we have celebrated all our Birthdays with sales. They have been memorable events in the history of Oakland for years, but for this October we have planned on a larger scale than ever before.

Cry On Geraldine's Shoulder

The Earl of Egmont kept a diary way back in 1730. In it he wrote quite a number of things, and amongst them the popular standard for a wife. Read it friends:

"Good nature, beauty, sense, breeding, birth, fortune—these are the essential wife qualities. If family and fortune cannot be had, then the other four must join to make a man happy. Good nature, or a husband has no peace at home. Beauty, or he has no delight. Sense, or his affairs go to wreck. Breeding, or the whole world reflects on his choice."

That's how they went about marriage way back in 1730. And now, after all these years of progress and education and emancipation of women look what we have! The other day a man married a woman BECAUSE SHE WAS A GOOD DANCER. He met her at a public dance and after he's known her half an hour he decided that he'd like to jazz with her for the rest of his life. He knows how it is, and we should be delighted to make him miserable.

Yet it's one hundred and ninety years since the Earl of Egmont wrote in his diary and we've been educated and educated and educated ever since.

A Squeaky Husband

Dear Geraldine—What would you do if your husband was always trying to pick a quarrel about some trivial matter? He knows how it is, and we should be delighted to make him miserable. It seems as though he finds sport in proving I am wrong when I know that I am right. But I always give in in order to keep peace. Things can't go on like this. We have only been married a short while and I love him very dearly. But I don't like to have things run smooth without a continual squabble. Is it my fault? When he accuses me of not wanting to tell him things (which I have forgotten or neglected to speak of) I feel as though I had committed a crime. I don't do this purposely and usually the incident is very trifling. I have no one else to advise me so I turn to you. JOAN.

Joan, dear, did you ever have a SQUEAKY ROCKING CHAIR? Irritating animals, aren't they? May be perfectly good rocking chairs as far as any one can see, yet somewhere in their anatomy there's something that rubs the wrong way and they'll squeak in spite of themselves. Sister, men are like rocking chairs. Squeaky chairs it comes to the squeak. We've taken to studying humans these last years and we're finding that the things that men make are but reduced images of the things God made. Wrongly adjusted mechanism always squeaks—in a man or a chair. Somewhere in your husband's spirit there's a contrary bolt. Perhaps it came when he was a little kiddie, through fear or misunderstanding or hurt. Probably he doesn't understand much about it himself, but you're getting the result.

Cure Him by Study

If you had a squeaky chair you'd cure it by study and work and patience and a little oil. You'd find the sore place in that chair and rearrange the parts and put it right. I think I'd try to cure my husband in the same way. First I'd study him with all the thought and love that lay in me. Then I'd give him a wonderful little dinner some night and put on my prettiest dress and buy him an extra fine cigar. And after the dinner was over and the cigar was drawing well, I'd sit on the edge of his chair and put my arms around him and talk it all out. I'd tell him what was hurting me—but with it I'd tell him what a wonderful man I thought him and how very much I loved him and tried to make him happy. It might not stop the squeak the first time, but I'm pretty sure that chair would be rocking along smoothly very soon. ONLY REMEMBER THIS—don't take the squeak as a personal insult. Think of it as something wrong deep inside the chair that's hurting the chair as much as it hurts you.

Wants to Get Thin

Dear Geraldine—What can I do to get thin? I have tried everything—all sorts of athletics—everything except the patent pills for reducing. I'm afraid they are "the bunk" and I don't want to lose my health experimenting. What shall I do? I'm wild about sports and have an invitation to enter a tennis tournament, but I have broken my tennis racket and can't afford to buy another. I don't want my friends to think I am a "slacker," but what can they think? They don't know about the racket. Everything that comes along I have to decline because I haven't the clothes or something. My friends are in a nice set, dress well and are well off.

All my friends have a special boy they go with and I haven't.

I'm not crazy about boys, but it seems funny for me to be going to our entertainment without my "special." What shall I do? HELEN

Avoid Starches, Sugars

You are a sensible girl not to take the "reducing pills." Some of them may be harmless, but it's a dangerous risk. You are probably eating the wrong foods for your system. Don't eat potatoes, sugar or fats. Eat lean meats and vegetables. I would consult a physician and find what would suit me. I want you to be as sensible about the other things as you are about those pills. Little sister, if "your set" are truly your friends the lack of fine clothes will not matter. If they're not truly your friends you should know it. We have all seen such "hard times" in these last years that the old false pride over a lack of racy or silk petticoats has been swept away. Just laugh and say you can't afford the new things, as the rest of us are doing, and your spirit of good comradeship will win you more friends than the lack of such things can possibly lose. If I really needed things I'd find some way to do. "Every one's doing it," sister. Just go at things from this new angle and I'll wager you'll have a dozen pals to choose from when the next entertainment comes along.

The Letters of Tessie and Joe

Follow their letters in The OAKLAND TRIBUNE. Joe is a traveling salesman. Tessie is his loving wife.

DEAR JOE:

I been reading a lot of politics lately. By that I mean I been reading parts of both candidates' speeches. One day I read the beginning of Harding's and the end of Cox's and the next day I read the beginning of Cox's and the end of Harding's. In that way I hope to keep my prejudices neutral. And for that very reason I'm sort of glad that that handsome young Franklin Roosevelt is only running for vice president instead of president, because I think he'd make a simply stunning looking president and yet at the same time beauty is only skin deep and seldom penetrates to the brain. But both Mrs. Fink and I feel his modesty was simply splendid in picking out the vice presidency to run for instead of the presidency.

Well, as I say, I'm keeping read up, and Mrs. Fink and I have some real hot political arguments. I always win them, but Mrs. Fink always acts as if she won them and I think it's pretty low of her. I guess you'll testify I'm a regular Jack Dempsey when it comes to arguing, won't you Joe? At least I can always make you roll your eyes in despair and hide behind the evening paper.

Mrs. Fink thinks she's going to vote for Cox because she knew a man named Cox once and he never did anything to be ashamed of, but I haven't made up my mind. The more I read their speeches the more they make me feel that either candidate would be all right so long as I don't vote for the other one.

Funny thing, Joe. Every time Mrs. Fink and I get political the baby starts to yell, even if he has to make up out of a sound sleep to do it. How do you explain that, Joe? I hope it's not a symptom that he's going to be a reformer or nothing like that. Nobody likes a reformer, do they Joe? I've always heard reformers have to die to be appreciated and I don't want the baby worrying himself into an early grave for the mere sake of a statue on a horse that he won't even see.

The baby gained 8 ounces last week, bless his little heart, apparently without an effort.

Your loving

TESSIE.

Tomorrow Joe springs an almost brilliant scheme to make the baby hard and manly.

SUSPECTS HELD AFTER FAILURE TO ROB HOME

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—Out of a confession by William Hamilton, who was arrested last night after an exciting gun chase after he had lost his nerve in a reported attempt to hold up United States Commissioner Francis Krull at the door of his home, came today two arrests, which police expect account for a long list of local burglaries and robberies.

The confession led the police to a room in the Dalt Hotel on Ellis street, where John Cannon and William Quintero were arrested on suspicion.

The room of the men is said to have contained eleven suitcases and filled with loot of various kinds, including jewelry, silverware, furs and expensive feminine apparel.

KRULL SURPRISES ROBBERS AT DOOR

Investigation coupled with the confession of Hamilton indicate the two men were jimmied the front door of the Krull home with the purpose of robbery when the commissioner surprised them. Krull, with the revolver pressed against his chest by a "look-out," pressed a switch lighting the electric porchlight.

The man lost his nerve, fired four shots at Krull and fled. A companion followed him.

THREE MEN HELD FOR INVESTIGATION

John Cannon, the police say, was the other man who loitered in the street as a look-out while Hamilton tried to jimmy the door. Quintero, it is believed, was not directly connected with the attempt to rob the Krull home, but he is being held with the others until satisfactory explanation can be made by the men of the large quantity of clothing, jewelry and furs in their room.

Oil Tanker to Be Launched Tomorrow

The tanker S. C. T. Dodd, under construction at the Moore shipyards for the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, will be launched at 2:15 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Frederick G. Dodd, wife of an official of the Standard Oil Company, will sponsor the 10,000-ton vessel. Mrs. Dodd arrived from New York yesterday and is at the St. Francis hotel in San Francisco. This is the first of four vessels the Moore company is building for the oil company, one of which will be equipped with the largest Diesel engine ever installed in a tank steamer. A sponsor's luncheon will be served prior to the launching. The Moore yard will furnish music.

COURSE IN RECREATION

The second of the industrial recreation leaders' courses has been started at the Oakland Y. M. C. A. The enrollment now is nearly fifty and it is expected that it will reach one hundred within the next two meetings. The purpose of the course is to train leaders to conduct recreation activities in the various industries about the bay. The course is being put on under direct supervision of A. G. Cushman, industrial secretary and William "Bud" Kearns, head of the department of physical training.

He Sends 'Long' Letter to Mayor; There's No P. S.

The letter written by J. R. PUTNAM was too long for this Oak-land girl to hold, even when she stood on a chair.

J. R. Putnam, 837 Fifth avenue, has sent a novel letter to Mayor John L. Davis, protesting against the use substituted.

POLICE ARREST CHINESE IN RAID FOR LOTTERIES

A squad of police early today, headed by Capt. B. A. Wallman and Sergeant Brock, smashed down the doors of a house occupied by Chinese at 543 Fifth street, and arrested three reported proprietors of lottery companies, as well as securing a quantity of gambling paraphernalia. When the officers broke down the doors a lottery drawing was in progress with fifteen Chinese present. With the appearance of the police they ran to a rear second story window and one by one they made a drop of twelve feet to freedom. The police arrested Chin Mong, Chin Louie and New Lee, said to be the representatives of the three companies in San Francisco.

Chin Hing, one of those who escaped, was injured when he fell through a skylight. He made his way to the receiving hospital to have his injuries attended to and was later questioned by the police. Ah Tang, another of the men who escaped, was later arrested at 1221 Harrison street with lottery tickets in his possession.

SOCIALIST BAN LIFTED

NEW LONDON, Conn., Oct. 15.—After refusal to allow Socialist Labor party speakers to address a street crowd last night, Mayor Frank Mor-riam today indicated that future meetings would not be interfered with, without given a reason for his change of attitude.

of the one-man street cars. It is illustrated, in colors and shows the cars and how they are operated by one man. The letter points out that many of the lines which for years supported the regular cars are now having the one-man cars put on them.

Putnam declares that the present cars are too large for their trucks and are dangerous when operated at the usual speed. He further says that they lurch from side to side and make riding in them uncomfortable. The mayor is asked by Putnam to take steps to have the old-style street cars put back on the more important lines where one-man cars have been substituted.

Look Out for Rheumatism As Winter Approaches

If you have had the disease for any length of time, you have doubtless resorted to the misleading treatment of liniments and lotions in an effort to get relief from its torturing pains. But you want more than mere temporary relief. You want to be freed from the shackles of a disease that will bind you hand and foot.

Why expose yourself to danger or suffer with an improper truss when absolute comfort and safety can be had at our establishments? If there is any truss in the world that requires the personal attention of a specialist, it is the fitting of a truss. Truss fitting is a scientific business with us—not a side line.

BRYAN WAVERS ON GOING INTO NATL. CAMPAIGN

By WILLIAM PHILIP SUMMIS, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—William Jennings Bryan may yet throw himself into the national campaign. During an interview by telephone today he specifically insisted that it should not be a question of black and white, but of the national campaign between now and November.

"I really haven't anything to say," came the voice of the "Commoner" over the telephone in response to the International News Service query if he cared to say anything on the political situation. "I am not discussing the presidential candidates nor the national campaign."

"May I ask if you intend to come out with an announcement of your views later—say between now and the election?" the correspondent asked.

"I am discussing the present," the fighting Democrat from Nebraska parried. "Let's not discuss the future."

"I am not discussing any phase of national politics," Bryan repeated. "And you don't expect to announce your views on this subject between now and election day?"

"You want me to pledge myself as to what I will do between now and election day?" came the answer over the wire, accompanied by what sounded very much like a Bryanesque chuckle. "Well, I don't want to do that. I am not discussing the presidential candidates. I am in the present tense. The future I will let alone."

WON'T DISCUSS HAYTI.

"Would you care to discuss the killings of national Hayti or our policy in that island?"

"I am not discussing any phase of national politics," Bryan repeated. "And you don't expect to announce your views on this subject between now and election day?"

National Leaders of Party Promise Support to Harding

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Support is pledged to Harding and his stand on the League of Nations and other international questions by thirty-one nationally known leaders of the Republican party. Among the signers are:

Elihu Root, Herbert Hoover, George W. Wickersham, Henry L. Stimson, A. Lawrence Lowell, Henry W. Taft and Charles E. Hughes, were among the signers of the statement, which follows:

The undersigned who desire that the United States shall do her full part in association with the other civilized nations to prevent war, have earnestly considered how we may contribute most effectively to that end by our votes in the coming election.

The question between the candidates is not whether our country shall join in such an association. It is whether we shall join under an agreement containing the exact provision negotiated by Wilson at Versailles.

Under an agreement which omits or modifies some of those provisions which are very objectionable to great numbers of the American people.

MODIFICATION OF LEAGUE.

The paper signed by thirty-eight Republican senators in March 1919, before the league covenant was adopted at Paris, advised the President that the signers could not approve a treaty in the form proposed, although it was modified to meet the desires of the nations of the world should unite to promote peace and general disarmament.

A majority of the senate voted to ratify the league agreement with modifications, which there is good evidence to show have been accepted by the other nations. But Wilson refused to accept these modifications and insisted upon the agreement absolutely unchanged and Democratic Senators sufficient in number to defeat the treaty as modified followed Wilson by voting against ratification.

That is substantially the difference between the parties now. The Democratic platform and candidate stand unqualifiedly for the agreement negotiated at Paris, without substantive modification.

On the other hand the Republican platform says: "The Republican party desires that the nations of the world should unite to promote peace and general disarmament."

Harding has since repeatedly reaffirmed the declarations of his speech in the most positive terms. The question, accordingly, is not between a league and no league, but is whether certain provisions in the proposed league agreement shall be accepted unchanged or shall be changed.

CONFIDENCE

The greatest asset any individual, any firm or any bank can possess is the confidence of the public. No man, no house, no bank can succeed or grow without public confidence.

J. Pierpont Morgan, the world's greatest banker, stated that often he had loaned men without collateral large sums of money and that he had often refused to loan men with ample collateral. He had confidence in the first, he had no confidence in the second class.

PIGGLY WIGGLY possesses to the utmost degree the confidence of the intelligent and discriminating housekeeper. They know when they buy at a PIGGLY WIGGLY store that they get the highest quality at the lowest possible margin of profit from a clean store.

SPIRO'S 12TH AND BROADWAY

The contest is not about the principle of a league of nations, but it is about the method of most effectively applying that principle to preserve peace.

If the proposed changes in the Paris agreement were capacious or without substantial grounds, one might wonder at the sincerity of their advocates. This, however, is not the case.

The principal change proposed concerns Article 10 of the league covenant. Wilson declares this to be the "heart of the league," and the chief controversy is about this. ARTICLE 10 OBJECTIONABLE.

Article 10 provides that the nations agreeing to the treaty shall: "Preserve against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the league."

This is an obligation of the most vital importance and it certainly binds every nation entering into it. It is a guarantee that no nation may be necessary to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any member of the league against external aggression.

It is idle to say that congress has power to refuse to authorize such a war for whenever the treaty calls for a refusal by congress to pass the necessary resolution would be a refusal by congress to keep the obligation of the treaty. The alternative would be war or a breach of the solemnly pledged faith of the United States.

We cannot afford such a provision as necessary or useful for a league to preserve peace.

DECIDE ON RIGHT COURSE.

We have reached the conclusion that the true course to bring about an effective league to preserve peace is to insist upon the acceptance of Article 10, thus prolonging the unfortunate situation created by Wilson's insistence upon the article, but by frankly calling upon the other nations to agree to changes in the proposed agreement which will oblige them to accept the article and objections less the subject of dispute.

For this course we can look only to the Republican party and its candidates for the presidency. Mr. and Mrs. Cox are bound not to follow it. The Republican party is bound by every consideration of good faith to pursue such a course until the declared object is attained.

The conditions of Europe make it essential that the stabilizing effect of the treaty already made between the European nations shall not be lost by them and that the necessary changes be made by changing the terms of that treaty rather than by beginning entirely anew.

HARDING IS QUOTED.

That course Harding is willing to follow, for he said in his speech of August 25:

"I would take and combine, all that is good and excise all that is bad from both the organizations (the court and the league.) This statement is in complete agreement with the suggestion that the league, which has heretofore riveted our consideration and apprehension has been so entwined and interwoven into the peace of Europe that its good must be preserved in order to stabilize the peace of this continent, then it can be amended or revised so that we may still have a league, the world's aspirations in 1918, built into the world's highest conception of helpful co-operation in the ultimate realization."

STUFF PROMISED.

We therefore believe that we can most effectively advance the cause of international co-operation to promote peace by supporting Mr. Harding for election to the presidency.

The statement bore the following signatures:

Robert S. Brookings, president of Washington University, St. Louis.

Nicholas Murray Butler.

Ernest M. Hopkins, president of Dartmouth college.

State to Be Asked to Amplify State Fair

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 15.—The state legislature will be asked to approve an expansion program calling eventually for expenditure of $4,000,000 for buildings and grounds to add to the quarters maintained here for the state fair.

At a meeting today of the State Agricultural Society, which conducts the state fair, the directors said that the exhibition this year was handicapped for lack of room and decided on a program of expansion which contemplated securing 200 acres of land adjacent to the fair grounds and the location of several permanent buildings.

There was a surplus this year of $20,000 after all expenses of the 1920 fair were paid, it was reported at today's meeting.

Two important racing events, once again, will be revived next year, it was announced. They are the Stanford-Golden and State Fair futurity stakes, with a combined purse tentatively set at $5000.

EDITOR FRANKLIN DIES.

MIXUP FOLLOWS RULING ON WINE MAKING AT HOME

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—The justification in the Latin quarter following the announcement that Justice Wardell, internal revenue collector for this district, had ruled that Californians could make a maximum of 200 gallons of cider or dry wines for family use, seems to have been premature. There is a spirited debate on here today between Frank M. Silva and Wardell as to whether the Wardell ruling was or was not right. Why there should be a debate seems to be another matter of questioning in the light of the interpretation of the wine order under which all U. S. revenue agents are acting, regardless of what their chiefs hold.

The revenue men are permitting the manufacture of wine and collecting tax on wine in excess of 200 gallons, but they are also reporting to the prohibition enforcement officers all who pay such tax or who make a declaration of having made wine. There is no doubt interpretation of the law, and it requires the officers engaged in enforcing prohibition to arrest any who make intoxicants. The 200-gallon rule is a statute of 1918, and does not form any part of the national constitutional amendment prohibiting liquor. So, while the internal revenue men are standing pat and receiving applications for home brew permits, Silva is known to be with preparations to arrest and prosecute.

Annual Meeting of Auto Men Tomorrow

Attorneys Urge Amendment To Raise Salary of Judges

A number of prominent attorneys and others interested in the success of the initiative amendment to be voted for next month, increasing the salaries of the justices of the supreme court and the district courts of appeal, met at luncheon today and formed a central committee which will have charge of the campaign in Alameda county.

The meeting, at which President M. C. Chapman of the Alameda County Bar Association presided, was attended by Judge T. W. Harris, Justice William H. Waste, Judge George S. Seta, Judge John H. Mortimer, Attorney E. A. Decore, W. H. Donahue, W. F. Ostrander, secretary of the Bar Association, Joseph R. Knowland, John I. Connors, E. S. Sanders, J. Sherman McDowell.

Letters and reports were received from bar associations throughout the state showing that in every county an organization has been perfected in the interests of securing the passage of the amendment. No opposition has manifested itself anywhere in the state against the measure, and it is conceded by everyone that in order to maintain the independence and efficiency of the judiciary in the highest courts of the state, the salaries of the justices should be made to at least equalize the figures at which they were placed when the constitution was last amended on that subject 14 years ago.

Survay of the situation made by those present at the meeting, indicates that the measure will receive hearty support in Alameda county. It is being generally endorsed by clubs, fraternal, women's organizations and other societies. It appears to be quite generally approved in labor circles, as well.

In keeping with the organizations of the bar associations in the larger counties, those present at the meeting today resolved themselves into a committee of the whole and authorized the present to the committees on publicity, indoctrination and to secure the sending out of personal letters by all friends of the measure.

At its meeting in May the Alameda County Bar Association voted its endorsement of the proposition, and in keeping with that action the committee today adopted a strong resolution in support of the measure. Three members of the highest courts of the state, who are residents of Alameda county, will be affected by the adoption of the amendment. They are Associate Justice Warren G. Sweeney of the supreme court; Presiding Justice William H. Waste of the district court of appeal, first appellate district, division one, and Presiding Justice William H. Langdon of division two of the same court.

THE RESOLUTION.
A copy of the resolution on behalf of the Bar Association follows:
Recognizing, as we do, the fact that an independent and efficient judiciary is of the utmost importance to the people, and feeling that one of the best means of maintaining the independence and efficiency of the judges in our highest courts is to provide for them a compensation commensurate with the professional attainments and industry necessary to a proper discharge of their duties. And whereas, the present salaries of the justices of the supreme court and of the justices of the district courts of appeals were fixed in 1906, since which time their compensation has been reduced in purchasing power to at least one-half of its former value. And whereas, at the time they were fixed the salaries were only regarded as a moderate compensation for the members of the highest courts of the state. And whereas, the measure has been submitted to be voted upon at the next general election a measure, designated as No. 3 upon the ballot, increasing the salaries of the justices of the supreme court from $3000 a year to $10,000 a year, and of the justices of the district courts of appeal from $7000 a year to $9000 a year, which amendment does not provide an actual increase but merely restores the salaries of the justices in part to the purchasing value of 1906, the total added annual cost to the state being only $44,000, which is not a direct tax upon the people but is paid from the revenue from corporations and inheritance taxes. Therefore be it resolved, that in furtherance of the action of the Alameda County Bar Association at its regular meeting in May last this committee hereby heartily endorses such measure No. 3, and recommends that it be favorably considered by the people of this county. Vote yes for No. 3.

WM. WEIGEL of Seattle, who says he had no idea anything on earth could do for him what Tanlac has done. Declares he has gained thirty pounds and that his health has been completely restored.

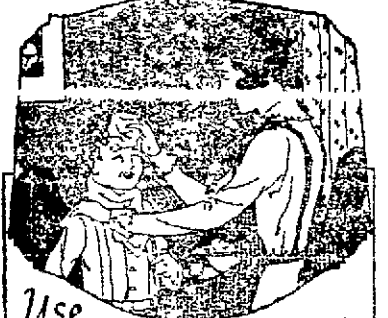

"I had no idea that anything on earth could do for me what Tanlac has done, and I just feel like telling everybody I see about this wonderful medicine," said Wm. Weigel, 2402 Third Ave. Seattle, Wash., with the widely-known New Washington Hotel.

"When I began taking Tanlac," continued Wm. Weigel, "my condition was so run-down that I could not work. I was never hungry, and my stomach was so disordered that the little I took would not stay in my stomach. My kidneys bothered me, and the pains across my back were so severe that when I tried to bend over and straighten up again it would nearly kill me. I had splitting headaches and such dizzy spells at times I would almost topple over. Then to make matters worse, I began to suffer with rheumatism in my legs. I was nervous, weak and listless, was rapidly losing weight and strength and seemed to be going down hill every day.

"I began to improve after the first few doses of Tanlac. I seemed to feel better each day, as I continued the treatment. In a few weeks I was like a brand-new man. Now I have a big appetite, eat anything I want, enjoy every mouthful, and I don't suffer in the least afterwards. I sleep like a child at night, and feel just fine on arising in the morning. I haven't a pain about me, my strength has been wonderfully increased, and I have actually gained thirty pounds.

"If anybody doubts this statement just tell them to see me and I will give them the names of some of my friends who will verify every word of it."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco, Oakland and Berkeley by The Owl Drug Company Stores and Eberly's Quality Pharmacy, Alameda.—Advertisement.

MY HEART and MY HUSBAND

By ADELE GARRISON

THE WAY MADGE PUT HARRY UNDERWOOD ON THE DEFENSIVE

My first emotion at the unexpected sight of Harry Underwood, alighting indolently from the machine, back of mine was one of unreasoning fright. Before my eyes flashed the most awful realization of my life, that when I had realized that the aviator who had crashed to earth with his machine and lay apparently lifeless before me was my husband.

This man, lounging toward me, his hands in his pockets, in the audacious manner of the old days when he had been my husband's best friend had been responsible for that horrible thing. He had been the connecting link between Grace Draper, the thought of whose very name turned me ill, and the man whose hands had cut the wires which sent Dicky almost to his death.

That he had repented as soon as he recovered from the influence of the whisky with which he had saturated himself, and had enabled the authorities of the field to have the first aid ready which had in all probability saved Dicky's life, mattered no what to me. He had almost murdered my husband, that thought would be ever with me.

I knew, however, that both in Dicky's eyes and Lillian's, Harry Underwood had redeemed himself by his war service, the most dangerous he could find, and the fact that he had sacrificed himself for Dicky when their machine had come down behind the German lines. That my husband was enabled to come back to me alive was undoubtedly due to the man before me, who had taken the bullets meant for him, and who had suffered for many days in a loathsome German prison before his escape.

But though the remembrance of these things stopped my feet from actually running panic-stricken away from him, my first impulse, made me realize that not only had I nothing to fear from him, but that for the sake of a mere decent gratitude I must be civil to him. I yet had a shuddering distaste for his society beneath the courteous, surprising manner I adopted as soon as I could pull myself together.

"Mr. Underwood?" I exclaimed. "How—wonderful—a surprise!"

He laughed sardonically, eyeing me remembered and detested. "Didn't I use to tell you that you couldn't be artistically, so you ought never to attempt it?" he drawled. "Well, you haven't gained any facility in that direction since I've seen you! You're about as glad to see me as a hawk about to be to get the life of Lincoln for a Christmas present, and you're thinking right now that you'd rather sit here by the roadside all night than to have me fix that tire."

"DOES LIL KNOW?"

He had reflected my thought so graphically the hot color sprang to my cheeks. Mr. Underwood put his head on one side, looked at me with an air of impersonal criticism that was maddening.

"I actually believe you're prettier than ever," he said at last, in a tone indicating that he had been debating the question for some time. "You haven't forgotten to blush, either."

"I don't know," I said, "but you seem to see you color up that way. Don't worry," he grinned at me quizzically. "You can take that startled-fawn—don't know—which way to spring out of danger look out of your eyes. I'm not going to try to kiss you, nor even imprint a chaste salute upon the tips of your fingers, although my art is aflame, simply burning me up."

His tone, rather than his words, reassured me, although for a moment or two I had been actually afraid of the gleam of reckless admiration which I could not help seeing in his eyes. But I decided to take the conversation into my own hands. "Aren't you in a boat in the bay for two or three days recently?" I asked, knowing now that the suspicion which I had not dared mention to Lillian, which I had dismissed as a hallucination, was indeed confirmed.

He started, looked at me keenly. "So you knew me when you were gazing soulfully through those old glasses the other day?" he said slowly. "Well, that's one on me! But you always were there with the lamps. A very observing little party you were in the old days. Does—Lil—know?"

I was glad that he had the grace to be ashamed as the look in his eyes, his heightened color, his faltering tones betrayed. For when I thought of my friend sacrificing her happiness and that of the lonely artist, Robert Savarin, in his mountain retreat because of her fancied responsibility for this wretched before me I could scarcely control my anger.

"I do not know whether she does or not," I said lightly. "It is sufficient that I do, and I should like to know also why it is necessary for us to be subjected to an espionage so intolerable."

Harry Underwood pursed his lips into a long, mocking whistle at my demand for the reason for his espionage upon Lillian and me. I saw that he was in one of the moods which used to exasperate me in the old days when he and Lillian, Dicky and I formed an almost inseparable quartet.

The hectoring badinage, the amused, sneering smiles in which he then indulged himself were disagreeable fresh in my memory. It might have been yesterday when I had last seen that expression on his unusually handsome face. Instead of months which had stretched into the category of years, and had bridged unfathomable gulfs of treachery and suffering and sorrow (Continued Tomorrow)

Young Woman Carries Long String of Names

Mrs. Betty Ireen Couroupis is really Mrs. Betty Ireen Gallaher-Moore-English-Harvey-Couroupis, according to a deposition filed in superior court. The deposition is from Miss Theresa Rich. Miss Rich is a former Oakland probation agent but is now in San Antonio.

Christ Couroupis, who married Betty here July 18, he says, wants his marriage annulled on the ground that Betty contracted too many other previous marriages without publishing intervening proceedings.

Miss Rich declares that Betty married Walter English July 2, 1914, leaving her first husband, Charles Moore, was dead. She further says that Betty married Pearl T. Harvey at Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 15, 1917, and left him, taking $5,000 of his money shortly afterward.

On August 15, 1918, Betty was arrested in Oakland on complaint of her landlady, Miss Rich, says, and relates subsequent events, including treatment of Betty in the county hospital and her escape therefrom.

Betty, the deposition says, does not admit all her marriages, but certain licenses and records are cited as negating these denials.

MAYOR BARTLETT ON CONSOLIDATION.

Mayor Louis Bartlett of Berkeley has once again frankly stated his position on the question of city and county consolidation. "I believe it is possible," he declares, "for a satisfactory charter to be prepared, but we are not committing ourselves to accept the work of the freeholders." There is no mistaking this language. Mayor Bartlett, it may be recalled, is chairman of the committee which will name freeholders.

Very frankly the mayor continues, setting forth that Berkeley is in a very fortunate position, for if that city finds the charter unacceptable and it is adopted by Oakland, a consolidated city and county government of Berkeley will be possible. This statement would indicate that Mayor Bartlett expects the freeholders to name Oakland alone. In the alternative proposal. No stronger evidence could be presented to substantiate THE TRIBUNE's contention that in the whole movement lurks the serious danger of county division, a menace to a continuation of Eastbay unity. In order that there be no mistake, the exact words of the mayor upon this point, contained in a prepared statement, are quoted:

"If the charter they prepare is better than our dual system of government, no doubt the people will adopt it overwhelmingly. If, however, the charter does not advantage us, we can reject it, and Berkeley is in the fortunate situation where, if the charter is unacceptable to it, but is adopted by Oakland, a consolidated city and county government of Berkeley will be possible."

A BUSINESS COLOR SCHEME.

A course in chromatistics and a study of the meaning attached to various colors is recommended to those California manufacturers, and there are many of them, who are looking to the market in China. Under-estimation of the importance of the spectrum in Oriental speculation may prove the undoing of an otherwise astute business house and the one who considers pigment as piffle is lost.

No matter how dependable a product may be, if it is done up in green paper or cloth it might as well be dropped in the sea as sent to China. Over there green means misfortune and many a merchant has changed his trade for no other reasons than that the goods sent him were wrapped in the objectionable color. Likewise blue and white signify mourning and should be avoided.

A good rule to follow is to use the colors predominant on a bunch of Chinese firecrackers. Gold is dignity and red means good fortune. It is considered appropriate to use the imperial yellow in wrapping rugs, and brown, purple and certain shades of pink are said to occasion pleasurable reactions on the Oriental buyer.

So it would appear that the province of art has encroached on that of business and that an aesthetic and understanding taste in shades and tints is as necessary to an expanse of business as it is to one on canvas. The manufacturer must look to his color scheme.

SHIPYARD VISION.

For the first time since the armistice the increase in the seagoing merchant marine, owned by American shipowners, has exceeded the increase in Government-owned ships built with appropriations in Congress. The private contractor has taken precedent over the Government contract, and the number of vessels being built out of the fund made possible by war emergency is decreasing.

The situation is reflected in the shipbuilding plants of the Eastbay where the construction under way is largely for private, and American, owners. During September the fleet of seagoing ships of 500 gross tons or over, of American ship owners, rose to 1,820, an increase of twenty-five over the month before, while the Government owned tonnage increased only twenty ships. There still remain 7,288,208 tons of Government-owned bottoms against the gross tonnage of 4,625,324 represented by private American ownership.

The far-sightedness of local shipbuilders who prepared their yards to handle the great repairing, overhauling, and painting business of the ships on the Pacific is to mean the steady employment here of thousands of men even if there should come a lull in shipbuilding. Oakland harbor has the floating drydocks and marine railways to handle all manner of craft, from the smallest tugboat to a battleship, and an active business in this field is now being experienced. One yard, alone, has taken from the water for repairs or painting one hundred and nine vessels since September.

There still remain more than a score of contracts for large ships to be built here and new ones are in prospect. The reputation of the Eastbay yards for efficiency is winning its reward in a recognition given the local yards by the shipping world.

PUBLIC HEALTH INVOLVED

There are three initiative proposals on the ballot for November 2 which vitally concern the public health. The decision of the people should be overwhelmingly against all of them.

No. 5 is the chiropractic initiative act. It provides for the creation of a special board of chiropractic examiners to be appointed by the governor to examine chiropractors and license them to practice their methods.

The State Medical Board now examines applicants from all the schools of medicine who treat the public. Chiropractors are examined as to their knowledge of the human body and of hygiene. The same examination is not given as required of those who prescribe medicines or practice surgery. The laws requiring persons dealing with the public in the matter of health and sickness to be reasonably equipped with knowledge of their subject is a wise and essential safeguard. There is no need for an additional board. This recommendation is made with no intent to disparage chiropractic.

Vote "no" on proposal 5.
The next proposal in this class is No. 6 and titled "Prohibiting Compulsory Vaccination." The title is misleading. Vaccination is not compulsory under existing law. At present children are exempted from vaccination when their parents or guardians sign a statement of conscientious objection to vaccination.

The real purpose of the proposed law is not to prohibit compulsory vaccination, which is not now compulsory, but to break down the power of the State to enforce, when appropriate and necessary, regulations and measures for the protection of the public health. Vaccination prevents smallpox, which is practically unknown in this country, whereas in Mexico, Central America, China, India and other countries where health supervision is lax, epidemics of the scourge are frequent if not continuous. Disease prevention is the key to better health.

Vote against proposal No. 6.
The initiative act prohibiting vivisection is numbered 7 on the ballot. Its ultimate purpose is to prevent knowledge of the physical system, its ills and how to treat them. It would prevent all practical experimentation with animals, by which science has measured its greatest achievements of progress and the preservation of human life.

There is a lot of false and lurid argument to the effect that animals used in experiments are tortured. They are not unnecessarily made to suffer. But if they were we must measure against this the control of yellow fever and typhoid, which made the building of the Panama Canal possible; of smallpox, dera, typhus, diphtheria, the purification of milk and meat supply through the elimination of diseases of animals, the prevention of poisoning by canned fruits and vegetables and a score of other achievements. Sentiment that does not find greatest gratification in the saving of human life is a false and selfish sentiment for in saving man God is served.

Vote "no" on proposal 7.

A SUDDEN REVERSAL.

Democratic leaders, in search of anything that would divert public attention from the apparent failure of their campaign, and who are in a position to seize upon any straw in the hope that it will bear them into office, have furnished the first material for political entertainment of the month preceding the election. They have shown themselves adepts in sudden and joyous ejaculation, and equally efficient in hiding their noise behind an embarrassed preoccupation.

The attempt of the Democrats to turn words and actions upon Senator Borah and to spread the belief that a split was impending in Republican ranks was so ill-conceived as to demonstrate the belief that public attention must be diverted at any cost from the issues and the men. Loudly it was proclaimed that Borah had broken with the Republican candidate and the gesturing toward the impending split was both eloquent and excited.

Then Senator Borah wired to Senator Harding his assurance of continued aid and one more Bourbon balloon flattened at a single word. Now those same Democratic leaders are making a great show of belittling the part they played in the premature celebration and are forced once more to direct their attention at things so discouraging as the issues and the candidate.

NOTES and COMMENT

Judge Graham has decided an interesting point of law relating to legacies. A bequest of $1000 to the Red Cross was contested on the ground that it was made less than thirty days before the testator's death, and in violation of a statute which provides that bequests to charities cannot thus be made. The judge held that the Red Cross is not a charity. The Red Cross is an institution, and a great one.

The first minister of Luxembourg has arrived at Washington. This little state was not expected to survive the world war, but here it is, taking its place among the nations. It is a state of a small country getting a status which before was dominated by a great neighbor.

The despatch which gives the news that the doctors and dentists of Chemnitz, Germany, have begun a counter-strike against the strike of municipal employees leaves off the nub. How a strike of dentists can be counter to any other should be explained. The fact that a man can't get his teeth pulled is not likely to prevent his striking.

The request of the president of the League of Nations Day committee of Boston that October 21 be set aside by proclamation to promote a better understanding of the covenant, was refused by Governor Coolidge. The Governor evidently does not consider the occasion to class with the Fourth of July.

City people who project into mountain fastnesses to hunt very probably do not know all that the same involves. There are two accounts on one page of possums out searching for lost hunters. Those who are not familiar with mountain regions—especially such mountains as those on the Pacific coast—may think that anyone could successfully negotiate them, but those mired realize that it is very desirable to have a mountaineer along.

The Red Bluff Sentinel tells of the havoc to the wine grape made by prohibition: "Prohibition has killed the grape industry in California so dead that a carload of our grapes sold for $5512 in New York. Ain't it awful? The grape men should give their unanimous support to the Harris bill and hit the grape industry another whack."

The King City Rustler gives categorical reasons: "Two reasons why the black stage was not exceeding the speed limit when it arrived from the north yesterday. First, because it had Deputy District Attorney Worth as a passenger; second, because it was towed in."

Sally Daily: "Somewhat similar to the one we pulled once, when we were dragged to a lecture on 'The Kink-Pink.' Our opinion was later asked on the lecture. 'The triumph,' we said, 'is of mind over matter.'"

The insinuations that have been made that high-up and close-up Democrats, or their representatives, have been in getting out of bond the fifty-one hundred to relieve the ailments of the Democratic convention may not be entirely justified, but there is no showing anywhere that any of them made a move to prevent it. And it cannot escape recollection that both Josephus and William Jennings were among these present.

The man whose automobile was found to have been used by the Alvarado bandits very probably has a good alibi, but when he accounted for a shotgun therein by the explanation that himself and another were going hunting, a fact that will not be corroborative as the duck season was not on until two days after the occurrence, and ducks are about the only game now taken with shotguns.

Rural criticism of an art in policy by the Redding Sentinel. The acting mayor of San Francisco says that his city had a reputation to sustain and did itself proud in getting a color for the Democratic delegates. A few more such demonstrations and San Francisco will be selected by universal acclaim as the permanent convention city of the nation.

The New Yorker who was divorced by his wife because he wore tweeds to an evening function evidently thought those clothes were "soup-or-fish-ey."

There are only two new and new fashions of about in the United States. Anybody who figures that that isn't enough is entitled to get busy immediately with measures to increase it.

James Watson, president of the First National Bank of Portland, has sold his interest in the bank to H. D. and W. C. Robbins, Vancouver Reporter.

The fame of the Concord Farm Center clubhouse is widespread, a most attractive and commodious building it is. It stands in the midst of commodious grounds and already has become a landmark. It is the social center of the community, and within it men, women and children gather to promote neighborliness, discuss problems and exchange ideas. It is opposed to isolation, that bane of country life. It makes for good citizenship and social health.—Concord Transcript.

Pay Donaldson, on the M. C. Preston lease, planted 33 acres of alfalfa in March of this year. His first cutting yielded 15 tons, the second 15 tons, the third next 42 tons. He expects at least 15 tons for the fourth cutting in September. Mr. Donaldson sold his alfalfa for $20 a ton baled. The total cost for baling, irrigation water and other expenses was $8 an acre.—Byron Times.

WHY FEAR DISCUSSION?

To the Editor of THE Tribune:
Amongst the major issues now before our people is the Japanese question. It involves our treaty obligations, the terms of our own Constitution, but commingled with and posing in Eastern Asia, and perhaps the peace of the world. Yet that issue has been raised by people who are afraid to discuss it, and they and the press have given it only an exparte expression, so that as far as possible, our citizens have been kept in ignorance of the other side. Senator Phelan, Senator Inman, V. S. McClatchey and President Barrows of the University have all declined a joint discussion with me. Why? If they have only the truth on their side I cannot do them harm. Why do they fear discussion? They are all politicians, each is seeking votes for office or for measures, and they use attacks upon the defenseless Japanese to draw votes.

I did get two joint debates on the anti-Japanese initiative with the Hon. William Kent, ex-Congressman and seasoned politician. But this was before the August primary and he was a candidate for nomination as United States Senator. He was then the equal of Phelan, Barrows, Inman and McClatchey and President Barrows white race and effervescent hatred of the Japanese. But he was beaten at that question. I await a reply.

JOHN P. IRISH.

the primary and left the track. I could get no more debates out of him. His interest in the white race subsided, and he has been silent since the votes were counted.

This illustrates the position of all the rest of the agitators who refuse to discuss with me. If the white race were in danger, if the State were imperilled by the presence of Japanese before the primary, as Mr. Kent declared, why does he not continue to raise his voice for the anti-Japanese initiative just as resolutely as he did before he was beaten? If he is still interested in the white race I challenge him, and any or all of the leaders of the anti-Japanese movement to meet me anywhere in joint debate on that question. I await a reply.

HEALTH and HAPPINESS

What You Can Do to Keep Your Hair; Some "Don't's"

By Dr. LEONARD K. HIRSCHBERG, A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins University.)

The hairs of a man's scalp literally grow through three layers of soil, much as does the tall grass of the prairie. The undermost layer of the scalp is the most delicate and it is the hairs of this layer that are scattered at the bottom of the cups or bulbs or true roots.

Over the lower layer is the middle one, with curved fibres. The third is the tough outer skin of the scalp.

Through this thick mesh-work of fabric the hairs must thrust upward and force their way, much as a Long Island clam shoots up its neck and spouts forth water through six to twelve inches of the sandy beach.

The hair bulbs are easily smothered to death if the scalp becomes too much scarred by injuries of childhood and youth, or is weak from too little muscular development or poor nourishment.

The bulbs are nourished by little globules of lymph, oil, wax and blood which cluster around them.

In infancy and adolescence the bony skull is not hard beneath nor are the three layers of the scalp tough. Therefore the delicate hair bulbs shoot forth the little "sprouts" which grow up unimpeded as the hairs of the head.

Hair, nails and teeth "erupt" or grow without one knowing it. If pain is present don't blame growing teeth, hair or nails. Look further, and the real cause will be found.

The prevention of baldness, it is plain, cannot be exclusively laid to microbes, dandruff or middle age.

Keep your child's scalp free from cuts, bruises, bumps and scars. Many a bump on the head in childhood is a cause of baldness in middle life.

Never try on hats which others have tried on unless you have a paper skull cap on.

Don't use another's towel, comb, brush or soap any more than you would use his toothbrush.

Keep the muscles and skin of the scalp movable, elastic, loose and well nourished.

The baldness due to deficiency of certain glands, from fever, eczema, alopecia, ringworm, barber's itch and dandruff may be only temporary, also restricted to one area. Each requires "the punishment which fits the crime," which is the application of the precise ultra-violet rays, salve, diet, exercises, massage or prescription required in the particular malady.

"Hair growers," "tonics," "restorers" and the whole potpourri of "sure things" achieve their fraudulent popularity from the fact that they make one feel better. Time is, the hair comes back sometimes in spite of what is used, and the particular nostrum at once receives an undeserved vogue, and recommendation as if it had "magical restorative powers."

Therefore, improve each shining hour to cultivate the three layers of soft-to-wit, your scalp. Fanatical cleanliness of hair, head, combs, brushes, towels, hair bands and finger nails will do more for the good of your hair than all the barbers, beauty specialists, dermatologists and "sure hair restorers" ever created.

CULTIVATE RESPONSIBILITY.

No able-bodied child, no matter what the station in life, should be allowed to grow up without a chance to develop a sense of responsibility for individual support. The backyard garden, the school and the vacant lot garden offer the child, and a few others, this chance. Emphasis upon this phase of gardening will not be misplaced by the schools, the association or individual homes.—Kansas City Times.

ROBBERS OF BANK SCOFF AT POLICE IN DERISIVE NOTE

We thank you for that job at Alvarado a real snap the Oakland police are booby to see Roughly lettered on a scrap of torn wrapping paper, that is a message that came to The TRIBUNE this morning in connection with the robbery of the Bank of Alvarado.

Aside from a final checking up of the loot by J. R. Blawie, cashier of the bank, it was the only development apparent in the hunt that has followed the robbery and the shooting of August May, bank president, CLEW TO USE OF STATIONERY LACKING

The envelope containing the rude message, which was done in pencil, bore the address, "Rand Reflector Service Station - 4 Oakland, 2005-07 Broadway, Oakland, Cal."

The station was closed about two years ago and its business taken over by the Sierra Sales Company in the Balboa building in San Francisco. Otto C. Kuerzell of the Sierra company was manager of the Rand station. He was out in the state today on a business tour and others in the office in San Francisco said they could give no clue to the old Oakland company or how its stationery might have been used.

Forty dollars of loot recovered

The letter, which was addressed to the "Editor Tribune Oakland," was postmarked at 1.30 a. m., Oct. 15, in San Francisco, and bore the post mark "2."

Possibility that the crude letter might be a hoax was strong. Cashier Blawie of the bank at Alvarado announced this morning that his count showed the robbers to have obtained $23,428.90. Practically all of this was in currency, although there was some silver. The robbers really took $40 more than the sum named, but $40 was found in the machine ditched by the fleeing men.

Traced to San Francisco

After two days of search for the robbers initial clues proved fruitless and the jeggmen remained hidden with their loot.

Efforts were made to trace the ownership of the hats found in the machine the robbers ditched near San Lorenzo. This trail was taken up at a San Francisco haberdashery by Sheriff Barnett of Alameda county.

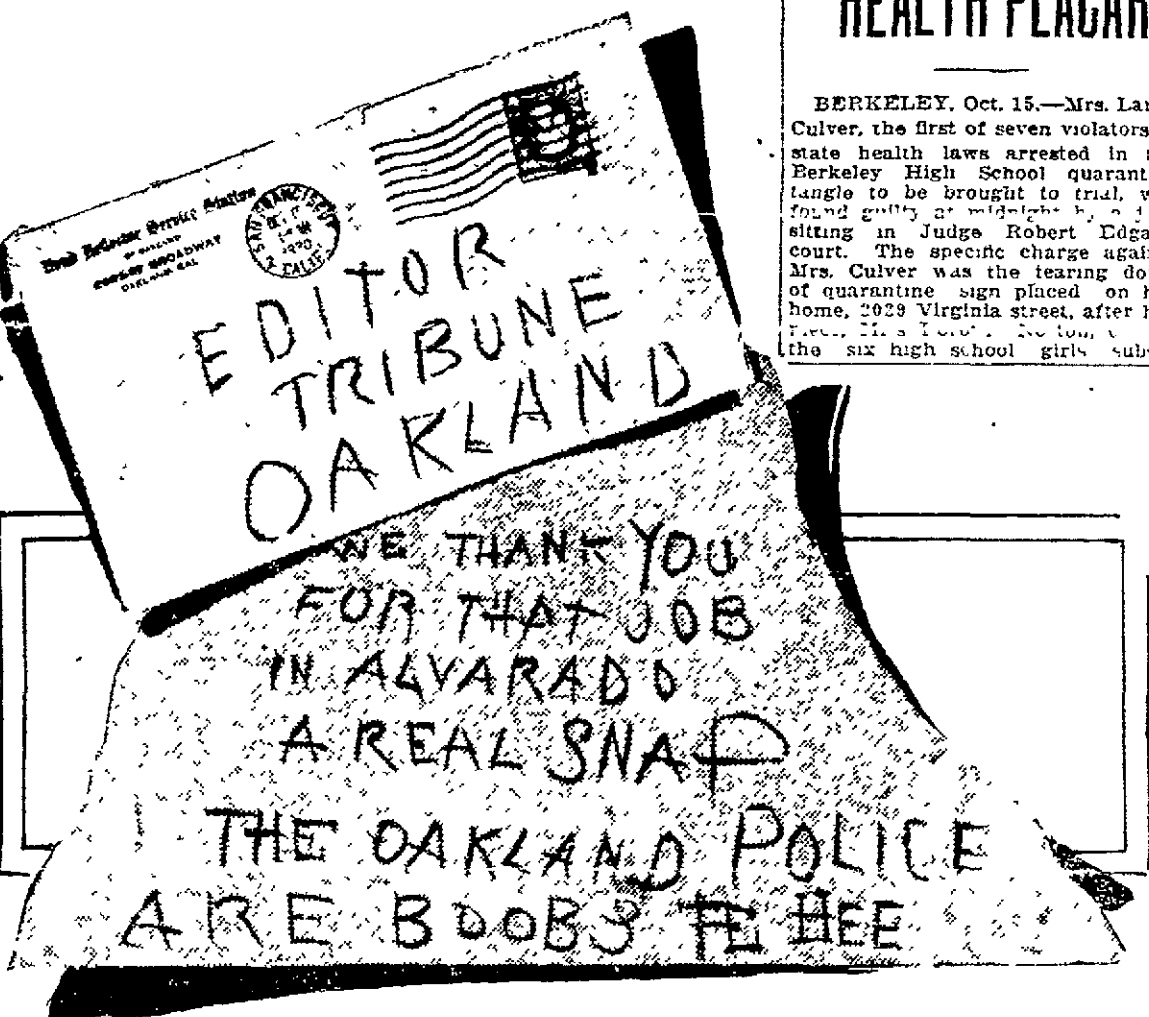

A. A. Sullivan, the owner of the ditched car, from whom it was stolen in San Francisco, was released by Sheriff Barnett last night. There being no evidence to indicate that he knew anything of the men who used his machine.

The condition of August May, bank president shot by the bandits, continued hopeful today. Merritt hospital attendants reported that May was, if anything, better this morning.

May's wound, which it is now disclosed is a single one of a complex nature, is caused by a bullet which entered his throat, fractured the collar bone and was deflected downward into one lung. It has not been removed.

Consul Weds Vallejo Girl At Brilliant Paris Service

VALLEJO, Oct. 15.—Mrs. Roy Kellock received word yesterday afternoon of the wedding of her sister, Joan M. Corcoran, to S. Sokobin, American consul of San Francisco. The wedding was solemnized in the Notre Dame church in Paris and was witnessed by many of the American colony of the European city. The bride is popular in Red Cross circles. The romance began when Mrs. Sokobin visited China about five years ago. The bridegroom secured a leave of absence last summer and came home by way of America to claim his bride. He will leave Paris this week for China and will be joined by his wife in January, as she will take passage for America and visit here in December before leaving for the Far East.

Mrs. Sokobin was born and raised in Vallejo and is a graduate of the Vallejo schools. She has been attached to the Red Cross abroad for four years.

MARQUARD POOR PROVIDER, STATES HIS ACTRESS WIFE

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—"It looks like a thin winter for Rube Marquard," his former wife, Blossom Seeley, vaudeville actress, remarked as she stepped from the witness stand in Joseph Sabath's court just after she had been promised a divorce from the former big league baseball pitcher.

"He lost his job last week, lost his wife today and now his earning power on the vaudeville stage is gone," Blossom, whose appearance was just like her name, continued. Marquard was released by the Brooklyn Robins during the world series when he was arrested in Cleveland on a charge of ticket scalping.

Desertion was the grounds given by the actress for the divorce. When Miss Seeley took the witness stand, Judge Sabath asked:

"Did you get any tickets for the world series?"

"You can bet I didn't," she answered.

"TICKETS FOR BLOSSOM"

Miss Seeley was paraded in a gray squirrel fur coat, gray hat trimmed with red, brown skirt, pumps and champagne-colored stockings.

Miss Seeley explained she did not ask custody of the child, 5 years of age; did not want her name changed nor did she want alimony.

"As a ballplayer, Rube was a poor supporter of the family," she told the judge.

"I was down in Memphis on my vaudeville tour in 1918 when I received a wire from my husband telling me to hurry back to New York. I cancelled my engagement and went to New York. I found our apartment bare. The furniture had been sold. I couldn't find Rube."

NO MORE MEN FOR HER

Miss Seeley said when she saw him a few days later she asked him what he was going to do.

"I'm not going to do anything," Miss Seeley said he answered. "You go your way and I will go mine."

As the actress was preparing to leave the courtroom, she was asked if she planned to marry again.

"Not until I lose my earning power on the stage or my health fails," she said emphatically.

But he had to write down and cancel the order with the tailor three days after he arrived for he started to go up right away.

AUDITOR REJECTS PETERSEN'S CLAIM

City Auditor Harry Williams, who has been hesitating between conflicting orders as to whether or not he should pay Captain Walter J. Petersen's claim of $1506.60 for back salary, today took the matter into his own hands and announced that he would not sign the claim.

As a result Captain Petersen will have to wait until next year before any action may be taken on his claims for money which he says the city owes him during the time he was illegally deprived of office in the police department.

The city council had ordered Williams, by a vote of three with two not voting, to pay the claim. City Attorney H. L. Hagan had ordered him not to pay it, and Williams was at a loss which action to take. After conferring with his bondsmen he has announced that he will hold up the money until the courts have passed on the claim.

TELLS HOW TO BEAUTIFY HAIR

Has Devoted Over Forty Years of Study to Hair and Scalp Troubles

Prof. John H. Austin, bacteriologist, hair and scalp specialist of Chicago, who now has offices at The Owl Drug Co., says that it is really remarkable that so few men and women nowadays possess an abundance of beautiful, healthy hair. Prof. Austin is probably right in saying that so little is generally known about the hair and scalp that when a little trouble actually arises the person afflicted turns to anything recommended by anybody, and usually the results are disastrous. Science has proved that different elements of the hair and scalp require different treatments. The particular trouble with which your hair or scalp is afflicted must be known before it can be intelligently treated. Guesswork is of no practical value. Prof. Austin has found that only a powerful microscope can determine the exact trouble with which the hair or scalp is afflicted.

Prof. Austin says that the use of poisons, caustics, and other harsh remedies, such as those in like taking medicine without knowing what you are trying to cure.

Prof. Austin's microscopic examination of the hair and scalp has shown that the hair and scalp are made up of many different elements, and that each element has its own special requirements. Prof. Austin's offices are at The Owl Drug Co., 14th and Washington, Oakland, 778 Market street, San Francisco. Hours 10 to 12, and 2 to 4.—Advertisement.

At least one army officer and five civilians have been killed, including the foremost leader of the Sinn Féin, Hunter and a British detective were both killed by machine gun fire while struggling in the street. The detective had grappled with Hunter to place him under arrest and both were reaching into their pockets for pistols when struck down. There were a number of raids by soldiers during the night and volleys were fired frequently. Hunter was commander of the Third Irish Republican army. He was sentenced to death after the Dublin uprising in 1916, but was released. He was arrested in 1917, but escaped.

Church Caucus Urges World's Brotherhood

TOKYO, Oct. 15.—A platform for a world's brotherhood was adopted at the world's Sunday school convention, at which representatives from thirty nations are present. It affirms an unshakable belief in the solidarity of the human race and the conviction that "any conception of racial or national integrity that ignores this basic fact imperils the security of the world."

Article five declares that all national and international problems can be solved and all difficulties adjusted if they are dealt with in a spirit of disinterested tolerance, noble consideration and Christian fellowship, while Christian altruism must take the place of self-interest in the settlement of international contentions.

RADIUM WORTH $7000 THROWN INTO SEWER

THOMASVILLE, Ga., Oct. 15.—There was consternation among the doctors of the Radium Institute here when it was found that $7000 worth of radium had been thrown into a sewer.

The radium was being used in treating a negro woman for cancer at the hospital and was left attached for a certain length of time. Deciding that she did not like the odor of radium and saw no good in a little thing like that, anyway, the woman happened to be left alone, cut the string holding it and, going to the bathroom, threw the costly remedy into the sewer. When the attending physician, Dr. J. M. and Dr. J. M. radium missing, and learned of its disposition, excitement reigned supreme.

Plumbers were hastily summoned, sewer pipes torn up and the radium search made. After extended search the tiny tube, hardly larger than a needle, was found lodged against the sewer trap in the yard of the hospital.

A young plumber named Sullivan received the $100 reward offered for the recovery of the radium.

NEW RULE IS SET UP IN VILNA

WARSAW, Oct. 14 (By the Associated Press).—General Zeleuski, head of the new government formed at Vilna after its recent occupation by his troops, has sent the old Lithuanian government at Kovno an ultimatum demanding that 20 Lithuanian troops be withdrawn 20 kilometers to the Vilna-Grodno railroad within 24 hours. Meanwhile General Zeleuski's troops are taking positions in various parts of the newly claimed territory.

Establishment of the provisional government of Central Lithuania, the name of adopted by the new regime at Vilna is absorbing virtually all attention of Lithuanian Polish government officials and has replaced the Riga peace negotiations as the leading feature of the newspapers. The occupancy of Vilna also has caused a stir in the foreign ministries, particularly the British and French. They have been in constant communication with their governments on questions arising from the attempt to create a new state with Vilna as its center.

Both the British and French minister called on General Pilsudski, the head of the state, and discussed at length the subject of Vilna. General Pilsudski, afterward conferred with Premier Witos, Prince Sapieha, the foreign minister, and others. It is reported some of the members of the National Council, the mission of control, who have been at Suwalki, have gone to Vilna to confer with General Zeleuski and to take temporary possession of the Lithuanian territory. Representatives having remained on the Polish side of the line, already have discussed the problem with a representative of the Polish foreign office, who left Tuesday for Suwalki.

ENFORCEMENT ACT URGED BY ROWELL

BERKELEY, Oct. 15.—Declaring that every law-abiding citizen should vote for the Harris enforcement bill, whether he be a wet or dry, Chester H. Rowell spoke for the measure here before the Berkeley Civic Center yesterday.

"The only serious objection to the law," said Rowell, "is that it is the business of the federal government to enforce its own laws. There is no way of preventing prohibition from being the law. There are ways of impeding the enforcement of that law. All who believe in supporting and enforcing the constitution of the United States should vote for it. Those who would merely like to vote against prohibition have no way to cast their vote at this election. There is no way to vote on any question except of law or lawlessness and there is only one law-abiding way to vote on that."

Clark Case Develops As Jury Is Chosen

That Milton Clark has an explanation to make for fleeing from the Hotel Whitecotton on the night of the robbery of that hostelry, was indicated in the questions put to prospective jurors by Attorney

Henry Davis in the trial of the Texas land and hotel owner before Superior Judge James G. Quinn today.

Despite the protests of Attorney Davis, who held that his client's constitutional rights were being infringed, the case went to trial today with less than the entire jury panel in attendance. Davis indicated that in case of an adverse decision, this point may be made the basis for an appeal as Judge J. J. Trabucco once decided such a case in favor of the defendant. It is expected that an entire jury will be devoted to the selection of a jury as both the defense and prosecution are exercising challenges lavishly.

Walnuts to Be Sold Direct to Retailers

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 15.—Announcement that the California
Walnut Growers' Association will sell directly to local retailers brought a stir in the ranks of wholesale grocers here today. Predictions that the National Wholesale Grocers' Association might bring pressure on the walnut growers' organization to force them to use the regular channels were made today.

Doctor Accused of Fearful Heart Tests

VIENNA, Oct. 15.—The case of Prof. Wagner von Jauregg, the noted heart specialist of the University of Vienna, before a commission investigating war delinquencies, is attracting widespread attention in scientific circles of Germanic countries. With several assistants the professor is charged with cruelty, in that he used a high electric current to detect "heart disease shamers" among the conscripts. Several deaths are reported to have resulted from this treatment, while some men are said to have committed suicide because of the suffering thus caused.

WHEN YOU CAN GET

Long's Best Coffee at 40c Lb.

The same grade of coffee for which you pay 50c to 60c a pound for in the tin cans. Only ours is better because it is freshly roasted every 30 minutes. While coffee in the cans is often stale and therefore not good. Coffee must be fresh to be good. We use only the high mountain grown coffees, with that rich flavor and aroma. We are now selling nearly 50,000 pounds of coffee per month.

There must be a reason. A trial will show you.

Uniform Coffee -
"Always Tastes the Same in the Cup"

Expect It To Be Different For It Is—In a Most Delightful Way

"How do you always make such good coffee? My wife can't get the same flavor twice."

You'll note a smoother, richer flavor in "Folger's Golden Gate"—full-bodied and yet mild.

You'll find a different, more delectable aroma and bouquet. And you'll find that you get uniformity in this brand.

Treat "Folger's Golden Gate" in the same way daily and it will always taste the same.

If there really is such coffee, don't you think you want to try it?

We go 10,000 miles to world-famous plantations for the best raw coffees.

We make sample blends and roasts from every lot. Then experts taste the coffee to match it with a rigid flavor-standard. It requires the skill of artistry and never-ending care to send you always the same flavor—alike in a thousand cans.

But it's this care that has made this coffee famous. You will always use it, once you know.

Some coffee roasters lack the skill. So their brands are variable—twenty different flavors may come in twenty cans. You can't make good coffee daily, regardless of your care, if you use a "careless" brand.

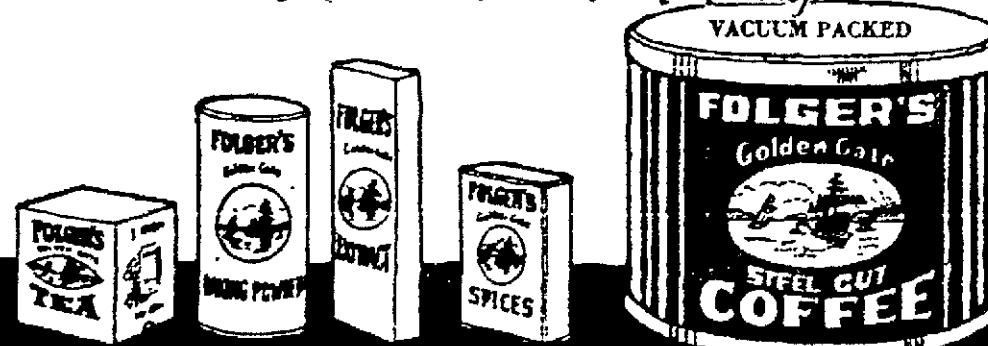

Just try "Folger's Golden Gate"—the other kind—and see. Make a one-pound test for flavor. Then try this coffee for two months to prove its uniformity.

Folger's is non-acid. So you can make it "strong" if you desire, and still retain the healthfulness and smooth flavor of good coffee.

Ask your grocer for a trial can now. Learn how one brand can excel in several ways.

What you lose thru failure must be added to baking costs—it has to be paid for.

Calumet Baking Powder will save you all of that. Because when you use it—there are no failures—no losses. Every baking is sweet and palatable—and stays moist, tender and delicious to the last tasty bite.

Pure in the can - Pure in the baking

That's a big saving—but that isn't all. You save when you buy Calumet and you save when you use it. It is reasonable in cost and possesses more than the ordinary leavening strength. You pay less and use less. You get the most in purity, dependability and wholesomeness.

In every way—it is the best way to keep down baking costs. That's what has made it the world's biggest selling baking powder—has kept it the favorite of millions of housewives for more than thirty years.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

WEST END GIVEN
BILL OF HEALTH
BY POLICE HEADS

West Oakland was officially given a clean bill of health and declared to be "chemically pure" today by Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. P. Morse in reply to charges by the Oakland board of education that vice conditions flourished in the vicinity of the Prescott school annex. "We are unable, they say to locate any immoral resorts in this district."

After informing the school board of the findings of the chief of police and his men, Commissioner Morse said:

"Counting on the board's full cooperation permit me to request that it be supplied with definite and specific information which presumably must be in possession of your president."

Quoting from the report of Chief Lanch, which was rendered Commissioner Morse on Oct. 11, Morse states:

"CHIEF LANCH QUOTED
"Realizing the past bad reputation of West Oakland and the possibility of efforts being made to open houses of prostitution there along with other forms of vice I have kept myself well informed of changing conditions since taking office and where questionable characters moved in these sections they were closely watched and one of the slightest pretext ordered out of town."

Sergeant J. W. Macey, in whose district the vice was alleged to have flourished, is quoted to the same effect:

"Officers Kersch, Marshall and Evans covered West Oakland separately and their individual reports are quoted by Chief Lanch in his report to his superior. He also says that Sergeant Sherry and Walters talked with Miss Appleberry, superintendent of the school at Fifth and Willow streets, and with Miss G. Herd and Miss M. Shaw, who stated that all they knew about vice conditions were reports in the papers. They denied that they had personally seen any evidence of immorality, according to these policemen."

GRAY IS NON-COMMITTAL.
The only comment which President Gray of the board of education would make when informed of the Morse report was to affirm that vice conditions existed in the district in question on September 28 when the school board investigated and brought the charges which precipitated the probe and caused the school board to discontinue temporarily building operations on the Prescott school annex.

Wrong Morgan Was Summoned in Court

The fact that two Morgans were arrested on the same day for speeding three weeks ago in Piedmont led to misunderstandings, which, after causing the issuance of a bench warrant for Professor William S. Morgan, principal of the Pacific Unitarian School for the Ministry, caused an erroneous article to appear in the papers to the effect that Professor Morgan was fined $50 for speeding. The other Morgan was A. L. Morgan, a printer of Albany.

The Albany Morgan failed to appear in court, and Police Judge Geo. Burroughs in neglectful writing issued a warrant by mistake for the theologian Professor Morgan was brought to court on the same day that the other Morgan's trial was originally scheduled.

Curling Hair Like This Promotes Its Health

For those whose hair is straight and lank nothing better could be recommended than the silmerine method. This insures a beautiful curliness which is perfectly natural in appearance and the health of the hair is not affected as where the heated iron is used. A few ounces of liquid silmerine—which can of course be had at any drug store—lasts a long time, so it is quite economical to use. It is pleasant to use, too, being neither sticky nor greasy, and is easily applied with a clean tooth brush. The hair should be moistened the full length before doing it up. The pretty wave effect in evidence in three hours is surprising to those who try this simple method the first time. The liquid also serves as an excellent dressing giving the hair a delightful gloss.—Advertisement

SHIPYARDS WORKER
PRAISES VINOL

Tacoma Wash. July 8, 1920—"I am an employee of the Todd Shipbuilding Plant here in Tacoma, and take pleasure in stating the results I obtained from the use of one bottle of Vinol."

"I was in a general debilitated condition—I lost my appetite, was troubled with insomnia, weakness, back and headaches couldn't hardly get out of bed of a morning to go to my work. While relating my condition to a clerk in the Crown Drug Company one day he told me of Vinol and I decided to try a bottle. From the very first I felt a great deal better. Now I work every day, sleep fine, nervousness all gone and am in fine condition generally."

Signed—Lester C. Rouse, Blumark 62nd St. Tacoma, Wash.

Vinol is sold in this city by Osgood Drug Dispensary 121st and Washington Sts. and 7th and Broadway.—Advertisement

Runaway Boy Found
Working As Gardener

ALAMEDA, Oct. 15.—Robert Andrews, who ran away from his home, 322 Lincoln avenue, four days ago, was located yesterday afternoon by Police Sgt. Grant Hicks, working in a vegetable garden in the West End. The boy, who is 12 years of age, has been several times a runaway, always having his independence cut short by the police. This time he grew tired of going to school and it took considerable argument before he consented to return home.
